

RECENT GRANT RECIPIENTS

DATE	RECIPIENT	PURPOSE
July 2007	Boston Medical Center's SPARK	Provide partial support for a special needs educator to integrate children with severe neurological needs into the SPARK Center classroom.
July 2007	Celebrity Series of Boston, Inc.	Help support the debut of emerging artists in the 2007-2008 season.
July 2007	Children's Hospital of Boston	Funding for a post doctoral researcher's salary for RECK research.
July 2007	Ensuring Stability through Action in our Community	Help support GED Plus , a program which equips the most at-risk urban students in Boston with the necessary academic qualifications, social and work-related competencies and support systems necessary to achieve economic self-sufficiency and to reach their long-term educational goals.
July 2007	Fine Arts Work Center in Provincetown, Inc.	Help support the renovation project that is bringing historical buildings up to code and also Shankpainter , a nationally recognized literary journal.
July 2007	Handi Kids	Help support Expressive Arts Therapy program, a creative outlet for children and young adults with all types of physical, cognitive and developmental disabilities.
July 2007	Massachusetts General Hospital	Funding for the innervated skeletal tissue engineering program.
July 2007	Partners for Youth with Disabilities	Help support and expand the Young Entrepreneurs Project , a unique and exciting career development program for youth with disabilities.
July 2007	Self Esteem Boston Educational Institute	Help support the Skills for Success at Community Colleges which provides a critical level of support to high risk students who face multiple barriers to graduating their two-year college program and transferring to a four-year college.
July 2007	The Home for Little Wanderers	Help support Academic Support for College and Life , a program which provides ten young women, ages 18-21 from and throughout the Commonwealth, the opportunity to live on the all-women Pine Manor campus while receiving college preparatory academic instruction, as well as clinical, social, vocational and daily living supports.
July 2007	Thinking In Music, Inc.	Help support Arts for Critical Thinking at Drexel Elementary School, a program which provides the more disadvantaged students (economically and academically) with daily enrichment programs in both the visual arts and music.